Back to Basics

Nowadays loft style is a major trend that became extremely popular both in the USA, where it comes from, and in Europe.

Loft homes are mainly chosen by creative and freedom-loving people who appreciate practicality, creativity, and minimalism.

Despite the fact that this type of decoration by all canons should not imply high budget, it is considered to be one of the most expensive styles in design.

About us

Steelbase is a manufacturer of tables made of precious wood and steel, as well as frames and supports for office furniture and the HoReCa segment.

Our competence:

Engineering development and mass production, as well as contract orders in the sector of finished products, components and accessories for the furniture industry.

Distribution of products to chain stores, trading platforms, serial furniture manufacturers and market operators in the sphere of furniture components.

In 2020, a rebranding and restructuring was carried out; in the past, the company has established itself in the markets of Ukraine and Europe under the name Stilgrey.

Production:

Since the establishment of the company in 2017, we have been creating supports and frames for office desks and the HoReCa segment. In 2020, finished products in the form of tables, benches, shelves and consoles made in Loft style were added to our range of products.

The production unit of the company is located in a close range from Kyiv, namely in the city of Boryspil.

Exhibitions:

Since 2017, Steelbase has been participating in both national and international exhibitions of furniture and furniture components.
